E. SMITH, Attorney and Coun-seller at Law. Office over Perfoffice, Middlebury, Vt.

KINOSELL GREWSTER'S BLOCK, MIDDLEBURY, VT. KINGSLEY & SON, Dentists, P. MEAD, Real Estate Broker.

R. HARRIS, Attorney & Counsoller at Law. Office Brewster's Block, MIDDLEBURY, VT. W. KIDER, Attorney and Conna seler at Law and Solicitor in Chancery,

M .TRIPP Sheriff for Addison Causty. Office in Stewart's Block. MIDDLEBURY, VT.

TEWART & ELDREDGE, Attornevs and Counsellors at Law. MIDDLEBURY, VT. W. JUDD, Manufacturer and dealer in all kinds of American and Foreign inchie, Granite Work, &c. With old Middle-ury Marite Co. P. TUPPER, ATTORKET AND

A . Coursetties at Law and Salielter in manners. Office over Postoffice, 28 MIDDLEBURY, VT. DR. EMMA H. CALLENDER,

RA W. CLARK, Attorney & Coun-

RA W. CLARK, Attorney a seller at Law. Residence, New Eaven, and Probate office, Middlebury. Parties indebted me on books or note will please settle forth-DROUT, SIMONS & WALKER.

Attorneys and Counsellers at Law, 22; RUTLAND, VT. SCHOOL , NER P. SIMONS. ALDACE P. WALKER.

R. H. MARDIN.
Attorney and Connection at law, Solicitor and Master in Chancery, Bristol, Vormont.
References—Hon. Grs. W. Grandey, Hon. C.
(I. Heath, Hon. John W. Rowell.

P. RUSSEL, M. D., Physician I, sittle and Surgeon. Office at the residence of the late Dr. W. P. Russel. Office hours 9 A. S. ill 1 p. M. Gr. S. till 8 p. M., unless profession.

ANON DAVENPORT, Fire Insurance Agent, representing the companies lately expresented by C. L. Cook, Esq. Also the Mutual life Insurance Company of New York. Office at lattice of the Cook of Section 19 and long to go to that other control in the control of the Cook of Section 19 and long to go to that other control in the Cook of Section 19 and long to go to that other control of the Cook of Section 19 and long to go to that other control of the Cook of Section 19 and long to go to that other control of the Cook of Section 19 and long to go to that other control of the Cook of Section 19 and long to go to that other control of the Cook of Section 19 and long to go to that other control of the Cook of Section 19 and long to go to that other control of the Cook of Section 19 and long to go to that other control of the Cook of Section 19 and long to go to that other control of the Cook of Section 19 and long to go to that other control of the Cook of Section 19 and long to go to that other control of the Cook of Section 19 and long to go to that other control of the Cook of Section 19 and long to go to the Cook of Section 19 and

R. SAYRE, Dealer in Household Jo Provisions, a general assertment of Gro-ics, Flour, Chemse, Lard, Teas, Coffees, Sugars, i Tobacces, Ac. Cash palat for Prime Entter my store any day in the week. 1911

S. PUTNAM would inform the west way luck goes. I play for amuse, drew. I was not, yet I felt myself the ment in a town where all play—men and indirect cause of her husband's ruin, women—

'Poor wretch! when I saw him at the batting of a superior quality, at the lowest cash parting of a superior quality, at the lowest cash of the same with disable, suicide was on his mind,' I said on earling her gratty lies with disable, suicide was on his mind,' I said on earling her gratty lies with disable, suicide was on his mind,' I said when the countries in including the countries in the Middislary, Dec. 13, 1872. PHOLSTERING.

The Superiority of

BUILDING LOTS

Ourthie New Street to universally beliefed;

To secure a pleasant home, when the days so dark and rains, Of a stormy life shall come.
Yes, to feel one's self protected
From the tlasts that winter sends,

Yes, build thyself a nice new house fixempt from rat, or bug, or mouse,

The Middlebury

MIDDLEBURY, VT., SEPTEMPER 22, 1874.

scutiment and beauty of expression reflect the in a poor street. Maracter and life of the composer.

VOL. XXXIX.

I LONG TO BE A STAR, Loking at my window,
Looking out into the space
Where the fleery clouds are flitting.
Fliting cross the moon's bright face.
Where the merry stars are twinkling.
In immensity so far;
But I feel quite and and lonely.
And I long to be a star.

I can see so much of beauty

In each protty little sphere,
As I in silence gaze on them
From my window way down here.
That a spell steals gently on me
With which nothing can compare,
My thoughts go to them from me
And I long to be a star.

When I think of them so diamonds In the cross of Him above, Spankling thus so brightly o'er u-As a token of the love Which the Maker of his creatures. In his heart of hearts doth bear, I have usen them

There is such a seething power. In their faintly glimmering da one by one they light upon. The sable veil of night; It fills my seed with calmness. Vhich no outer force can mar

And this one thought comes alone I long to be a star.

Yes! I long to be a star,
And take my place on high:
To look down on this world so fair
With a merry twinkling ey.
To watch o'er weary mortals
And guide them on their way.
Till they enter the bright portals
Where reigns eternal day.

of the trees
On their carpet green are moving in the gently blowing breeze,
And the gay and happy farmer, from his toll at neon has gone,

This is, indeed, my work ed.

When the light of day is dying and the caim, blue-done is hung With clouds of gold unit number across its arch-

NO CARDS. My dear countess,' I said 'I assure many here never do so simply to kill time for amusement, he for life.

A DR. CABLES ERASIVE SOAP, I had made her acquaintance at M -, a en to evil deeds."

Then the news has reached you?

but will you come with me?"

my grave. Let us go from here; the sir the temptation, took their guns and rode Thingvalla.

S. PUTNAM would inform the ever way luck goes. I play for amuse, drew. I was not, yet I felt myself the Faxa Fiord was visible in the r ar and a was well known in all the principal cities. I Potomae should be given to some more next day renewed the fight. Again Part

You seem to larget what a pleasure to were widely different. Ah! it is you breadth and sublimity, and we arged our thirteen years of age was apprenticed to a quarters.

The following lines were found among the com- at last about to comment upon it, when their tints revealed it to an experienced strole away with his gun, but brought LECTRO PLATING, by S. HOLpositions of the late J. B. Burke. Their pathon of she stopped before a high, wretched house, by Mindelle and beauty of expression reflect the in a page street.

Lectro Plating, by S. HOLpositions of the late J. B. Burke. Their pathon of she stopped before a high, wretched house, by Mindelle and beauty of expression reflect the in a page street. 'It is here I have to call, she remark-A wretched abode, Mr. Meiville: long, level ridges, like those of the old wall. As we rode past the camp on leav-t will you come with me?'

Alleghanics. Grass nowhere seemed to ing he was breakfasting in the open air, If it were the unmentionable region grow above a height of 1,000 feet, after and replied to our salutations with a itself, dear countess, Iwould follow you,

I rejoined, bowing gallantly.

Whereupon we went into the dark, slesse smelling passage, and mounted up the stairs, until nearly under the tiles.

Here she knocked at a door. I heard

Our ponies knew perfectly well what

Our ponies knew perfectly well what

Our ponies knew perfectly well what our salutations with a piece of bread and meat in one hand, which the soil showed a coaring of silvery appears to our salutations with a piece of bread and meat in one hand,

which the soil showed a coaring of silvery appears to our salutations with a piece of bread and meat in one hand, which the soil showed a coaring of silvery appears to our salutations with a piece of bread and meat in one hand,
which the soil showed a coaring of silvery appears to our salutations with a piece of bread and meat in one hand.
We left our friend Magnusson and seving a provision-chosts at Thingvalla, and series of 'Notes on the Union of the Armies of the Potomac and the Army of Virginia,' explained the cause that led to the way of the greater and the command of the army of the piece of bread and meat in one hand.
We left our friend Magnusson and seving a provision-chosts at Thingvalla, and series of 'Notes on the Union of the Armies of the Potomac in September, 1862, and Mr. Chase in a piece of bread and meat in one hand.
We left our friend Magnusson and seving a provision-chosts at Thingvalla, and series of 'Notes on the Union of the Armies of the Potomac in September, 1862, and Mr. Chase in a piece of bread and meat in one hand.

We left our friend Magnusson and seving a provision-chosts at Thingvalla, and series of 'Notes on the Union of the Armies of the Potomac in September, 1862, and Mr. Chase in a piece of bread and meat in one hand.

We left our friend Magnusson and seving a piece of bread and meat in one hand.

We left our friend Magnusson and seving a piece of bread and meat in one hand.

We left our friend Magnusson and seving a piece of bread and meat in one hand.

We left our friend Ma sobs within; but no answer coming, the was required of them, and we had no player-stew which an Arctic explorer and Clellan. countess entered. Never had I beheld a trouble beyond the shifting of unevenly a Cincinnati editor bad employed two scene of such misery. The wretched balanced packs. The loose animals some walous hours in producing, had recruited room was almost bare of furniture, and times strayed sside, but a dash of Evvinour strength; we were not yet so damp on the chair by the table, on which her du and a shout of "Ho!" generally as to be disagreeable, and so commenced arms and face rested, was a woman with recalled them to the track. We climbed the ride of 45 miles in cheerful spirits. disheveled hair, weeping passionately: a ridge whence there was a backward A mile up the valley, after passing a lit-while two pretty, but ill-clad, children glimpse of the harbor of Rejkiavik, with the farm called Skyrcot, we struck to the clinging to her dress lifted their tiny a new steamer entering. This could be east-ward into a hearm, or lava-field torn voices with their mother's. The counters approached and address-ed her in soothing tones, which calmed in Iceland before the Sunday celebration, where soil had gradually accumulated, her grief. Then she asked. Lina, may I Pushing forward, we passed two cold there grew stunted willows and birches, go into the next room with this gentle. lakes, another windy height, and then de- rarely more than three or four feet in man?' seemded in Soljedal, a lovely, grassy val-beight. This is called the Thingvalla The weeping woman bowed assent, and ley, threaded by a winding stream. This "Forest!" It apparently covers eight my cierrone beckened me to follow. It is the usual halting-place between Rejki- or ten square miles, and, miserable as it was a miserable bedchamber, while on avik and Thingvalia, because it is nearly seems, is able to supply the few farms in the bed evidently lay the cause of the half way, and it is the only spot where the neighborhood with sufficient fuel.

woman's tears—a body covered by a the ponies can graze. We had now been It is a question whether Iceland was sheet. 'Her husband" I exclaimed, interrog, chilled from splashing through the icy cate. No large tree trunks have been and asked to be retired. My voice was the direct advance and it was finally de- my at Manassas, followed him to the streams, and rest and refreshment were found in the peat-beds, and there are no at once given in concurrence with those of termined upon. When the morning light is streaming we had not hard, valo and hill, and the joyan feathers we had and the joyan feathers of the mishight with Sammy oil hard for the same is high in however, and the grave, allows the same is high in however, and the grave of the trees.

When the morning light is streaming were well and, valo and hill, and the joyan feathers amount of the mishight with Sammy oil hard for the morning light is streaming were well and the joyan feathers amount of the mishight with Sammy oil hard for the mishight with Sammy oil hard for the mishight with Sammy oil hard for the mishight with sammy oil may be placed on the mishight in however, and the grave for the mean is high in however, and the grave for the mean is high in however, and the grave for the trees.

Yes. A suicide. He made away in the grave for the disposition of his forces, engaged him with himself last night. Mr. Melville, our bridle-reins upon the grave. This is proceeded the counters, solemnly, yester-as birch. Scotch fir, mountain ash, and alder the fact of the wanted in shelfered places, with a might be raised in shelfered places, with a single to the poon what might be raised in shelfered places, with a might A suicide. He made away never welcomer. Dismounting, we threw local traditions of woodland. I am con-play she answered. Lina Decard was race have retained so many of the same my lady's maid, as pretty as good. She primitive characteristics married this man, who was well to do.

The afternoon's ride was monotenous skield, streaked with They settled here. Gaming attracted and weary. We rose out of Solgedal, snow, closed the northern vista of the same play. They settled here, Gaming attracted and weary we rose out of Solgedal, snow, closed the northern vista of the same the resulting same and an arrived to the want he said was instanced to the capture of the possibility of being obliged to capiture with clouds of gold and number across its arche way flung.

F. SUTTON, M. D., Physician and the siturgeon. Office next door east of the far off silent home.

And the siturgeon office next door east of the far off silent home.

They settled here, Gaming attracted and weary We rose cut of Soljedal, snow, closed the northern vista of the way flung, and issued way flung. The first fissure we reached is shirted an isolated mountain, and issued valley. The first fissure we reached is on to Richmond and capture it before the upon a broad, dreary, upland, where our called the Hrafungja, or Raven's Cloft; that night he returned penniless. It is about 160 feet our this ingle capture of the Union the course was marked, for in advance or within two or army, was snatched from it. The result the impossibility of strengthening the bined attack on the advanced rebel army. she had kept to get bread for her children, traveler during the snews of winter, bridge, formed by the falling together of and bought the poison which had caused Ployer and curiew piped their melanthis death! Cover that ghastly, accusing face, I sprinkled here and there, and presently brought us to the level of a upper braan, said, with loathing; it will haunt me to Dr. Hapes and Mr. Gladstone yielded to wilder and more desolute than that of that I could get along under existing ar would be made by McClellan, by unex- vanced army would have been captured > away from the path. We soon lost sight 'My dear countess,' I said 'I assure She obeyed. We returned to the other of them, but took the precaution to leave As Unsuccessed Lare — John W, you I never gamble beyond my means, room. There I laid my purse, containing Geir behind as a guide. Gradually as an an of vast experience, and lose neither head nor temper, which, fifty pounds, in the widow's lap, and with conding, we came upon a divide whence York, was a man of vast experience, and ever way lack goes. I play for amuse, drew. I was not, yet I felt myself the Faxa Fiord was visible in the r ar and a was well known in all the principal cities ment in a town where all play—men and women—

>
> "Not at all, sir," broke in my companion, curling her pretty lips with disdain, not unmingled with irritation. If and "Yes' she remarked slowly, you played heart of Tecland, New mountains are the green to some more next day renewed the nght. Again Formand was well known in all the principal cities of the Union. He was an intimate friend was satisfied with these explanations, and distant sheet of blue water in front. The of the Union. He was an intimate friend was satisfied with these explanations, and when I went to New York soon after.
>
> "Not at all, sir," broke in my companion taking the principal cities of the Union. He was an intimate friend was satisfied with these explanations, and when I was taking the first the first time of the Union. He was an intimate friend was satisfied with these explanations, and when I went to New York soon after.
>
> "Not at all, sir," broke in my companion to Not at all, sir, broke in my companion to the James, and give diminished forces, but the division of the Union. He was an intimate friend was satisfied with these explanations, and when I was taking the Union. He was an intimate friend was satisfied with these explanations, and when I was taking the Union. He was an intimate friend was satisfied with these explanations, and when I was satisfied with these explanations, and the Union. He was an intimate friend was satisfied with these explanations, and the Union. He was an intimate friend was satisfied with these explanations, and the Union the Union to New York soon after.
>
> "Not at all, sir,' broke in my companion, and many provided with these explanations, and the Union the U The stakes peared, the landscape increased in Ontario county, N. Y., in 1817, and when the second and third farms beyond which company who ledged in the church paid asked : there was no sign of human habitation us visits of curiosity; but all was wet "Do you know that lady " 'It always travels fast,' she responded during the remainder of the day's jour-outside of our tent, and all was weariness "No sir," replied "ney. Wherever the disintegrated rock within. Good stere of blankets kept us claim she is insane."

THEM -- PORTER'S CONDUCT IN NOT SUPin September, 1862, and Mr. Chase in a in retreat toward Richmond.

ty of disposition, that caused my with-

This is, indeed, my work "I ejeculate spects it will rarely have cause to complain of the people. It is strange how in breadth, sloping southward from a plain of the people. It is strange how in breadth, sloping southward from a explained to me what he said was his reaching Harrison's Landing referred to Porter who had been explained to me what he said was his reaching Harrison's Landing referred to Porter who had been explained to me what he said was his reaching Harrison's Landing referred to Porter who had been explained to me what he said was his reaching Harrison's Landing referred to Porter who had been explained to me what he said was his reaching Harrison's Landing referred to Porter who had been explained to me what he said was his reaching Harrison's Landing referred to Porter who had been explained to me what he said was his reaching Harrison's Landing referred to Porter who had been explained to me what he said was his reaching Harrison's Landing referred to Porter who had been explained to me what he said was his reaching Harrison's Landing referred to Porter who had been explained to me what he said was his reaching Harrison's Landing referred to Porter who had been explained to me what he said was his reaching Harrison's Landing referred to Porter who had been explained to me what he said was his reaching the referred to the two furthers are reached to me what he said was his reaching the referred to the result of the two furthers. rangements until about the middle of Feb-

You seem to lerget what a pleasure to vere widely different. Ah! it is you breadth and sublimity, and we arged our thirteen years of age was apprenticed to a quarters.

The seed to the s

The control of the co

to give him the result of their delibera- was advanced to the Rapidan, after driv. he was able to stow up a large stock of tions. The President told me he had ex. ing Jackion back across that river by the meat for the next winter's supply. using "No sir," replied the clerk, "but I peeted them, and had asked McClellan to battle of Slaughter or Cedar Mountain, the brine of Salt Lake for the diring the remainder of the day's jour.

I began self-extenuation as usual, when the stopped me.

Stay? Let us ray no more on the subject just now. I have a visit to make.

Stay i be the us ray no more on the subject just now. I have a visit to make.

Will you are as my cavalier?

Who sir, replied the clerk, what I began self-extenuation as usual, when had declined on the bellows, from suffering with cold, but I imagine ground that he did not wish to influence their decision. They presented them sale beside thyme, saxis our party visited the famous "No sir," replied the clerk, what I began self-extenuation as usual, when had declined on the bellows, from suffering with cold, but I imagine ground that he did not wish to influence their decision. They presented them sale by the considerable delay to the considerabl I accepted the offer, and the countess this desolation, was in looking abroad to thought it would keep until our return who is over five feet tall and can wear while four were for an immediate advance movement was much delayed by unwil-

THE POLITICAL GENERALS.

Register.

PORTER-HOW HE LOST CONFIDENCE IN POSTPONED. The tenth of the ten days Newport News, and some to Yorktown, tion. The whole army were moving to- and Alexandria. Gen. McClellan had been reinstated in place it was found that the enemy had Pope was vigorously disputing the ad the command of the army of the Potomac evacuated it some days before, and were the command of the army of the Potomac evacuated it some days before, and were to the command of the commy. When their whole in September, 1862, and Mr. Chase in a in retreat toward Richmond.

Armies of the Potomac and the Army of our immense and magnificently appointed ing his army by superior numbers before Virginia," explained the cause that led to army had been held in check for months a junction with McClellan's army could the withdrawal of his confidence in Mc. by a force not one-third as great in num- be offected, he suddenly tell back beyond "It may have been an error of judg- spects, and that the impregnable fortifica- disorder. The enemy followed, and a proment, but certainly it was not a perversi- tions which had been so magnified by our tracted struggle took place on the Rap generals, were works of little strength pahannock. Pope disputed their crossing drawal of confidence from Gen. McClel-lan. I welcomed him to the command of ous assault. The Rebel flag had been from the station of the Orange and Alex-the army at Washington with the most flaunted in our sight from Munson's hill andria railroad, but he was not in suffi-unaffected satisfaction, and when his de-by an inconsiderable detachment for cient force to prevent them passing up lays disappointed my hopes, receive with months, until it was voluntarily with the country, and by a long detour coming credence, almost if not entirely absolute. drawn. Our generals had never ventured through the mountains. By this move-

"At the President's instance Gen. Me- ition, guns, provisions and stores. Gen. army; especially to Porter who had been the success of the finances, and I replied the certainity that no vigorous effort it would have been decisive. The adpected blows south of the James, to re- or so thoroughly routed, that recovery ruary; and he assured me that the whole trieve the disasters north of it; the possis even with the heavy reinforcements near movement would be accomplished before bility of the loss of the entire army, con. at hand, would hardly have been possible the first of that month, and that he had vinced me, and convinced the secretary of As it was, the enemy fell back only to be already begun his arrangements for gath- war that the command of the army of the reinforced by the main body, and the we were to have no going into winter mont and McDowell, and called the army the enemy proved too strong, and we retired. She soon came back, dressed the grand, lofty ranges of mountains, from the Geysers. In the morning the her shoe, number three's.

The standard of the standard o

Of the four I recall only the names of for walking, when we set forth. As we went I perceived something had evidently gone wrong with my companion. She ly gone wrong with my companion. She was grave, and talked but little. I was distance, while the softness and purity of o'clock it seemed to be 8. The King loft, and den give one general conwulsion."

While four I recall and can wear while four treturn who is over five feet tall and can wear movement was much delayed by unwing movement was much dela vance upon Richmond under a vigorous able leader-or at any rate a march ward Fredericksburg, leaving Richmond on the left—was entirely leasible, and would secure the junction of the two ar-mies sooner than transportation by the river and bay, and marches to Fortress Monroe and Yorktown. He did not accept this idea, but insisted on the speediest possible embarkation and march of the troops, with a view to uniting them with the army of Virginia, before the re-NO. 27 with the army of Virginia, before the re-bels could force Pope back on Washing-ton with their massed forced. So the movement went on. Some of the troops grounds of his opinion, and came to the were embarked on transports and brought conclusion that the advance should not be to Alexandria; some were marched to came, and there was an immense commo- and there embarked and brought to Aquia

"It was now painfully apparent that of the Rapidian, in the hope of overwhelmbers and inferior in almost all other re- the Rappahannock without loss or without the assurances of those having the best opportunities to know that his activity was thwarted by the disinclination of General
Scott to give him means and opportunities. I honored Gen, Scott to the point

The drawing the mode of advances and never ventures are through the mode of advances of the weak position.

"After the evacuation of Manassas the supposed they would find that places to give him means and opportunities. I honored Gen, Scott to the point President, the secretary of war, myself lan's army, but the fact was otherwise. of veneration, and thared the general con- and some of the generals favored a direct. The occupying force was inconsiderable fidence in his military knowledge and genius; but I knew at what cost of physical suffering he discharged the arduous duties of his position, and was not suprised when sufar route, by Fortress Monroe and he availed himself of the act of Congress. Yorktown, McClellan preferred this to and by rapid marching attacked the eneplains of Bull Run, and by a judicious of Virginia and placed under Pope. The the day. Pope had sent an earnest de-